

Join us in this Zoom Webinar

<https://undp.zoom.us/j/96316378385?pwd=WVVhakVJNW4wZ2Z3RwMjVYQzlyQT09>

12 August 2020 Time: 10h00 to 12h00 Angola & 11h00 – 13h00 Namibia and South African time

The Benguela Current Convention (BCC) joins the United Nations (UN) in celebrating International Youth Day 2020. International Youth Day gives an opportunity to mainstream young peoples' voices, actions and initiatives, as well as their meaningful, universal and equitable engagement.

The BCC will host this webinar for the youth to share their actions and raise their voices towards conservation and sustainable use of the Benguela Current Large Marine Ecosystem, in line with UN Sustainable Development Goal 14 "life below water".

Presenters

Session 1: Youth action towards conservation and sustainable use of marine resources

Victoria Erasmus
Ph.D Candidate
Rhodes University,

Victor Agostinho
Research Intern: National
Marine Institute,

Titus Shaanika
Namibia Nature
Foundation,

Chilo Nonyane
Student Researcher: Nelson
Mandela University,

Session 2: Advancing youth engagement in conservation and sustainable marine resources

Masibuye Madinda
Student Intern: Zwartkops
Conservancy Trust,

Victor Chilamba
Youth Advocate
Benguela Youth Forum,

Sinegugu Banda
Youth Advocate
Nelson Mandela University,

Deon Shekuza
Youth Advocate
Sustainable Development,

To obtain the meeting entry code, send an email to jackson@benguelacc.org