

Effective Engagement with Stakeholders

Call for Applications: WIOGEN Stakeholder Engagement Training

We are happy to announce another free WIOGEN Training Workshop, this time on Stakeholder Engagement, in cooperation with the Rhodes Business School (South Africa). The course will be virtually (online) delivered on the 14th December 2020. This interactive workshop will provide you with foundational tools, approaches and considerations for effective stakeholder engagement in the coastal and marine environment. During the course you will be introduced to some key concepts and tools used for effective stakeholder engagement, share your insights and experiences, and work on case studies to consider real-world examples with fellow course participants.

The course is geared towards scientists, policy-makers, decision-makers and managers in the coastal and marine environment, but we encourage everybody with interest in those processes to apply. To apply, please fill out this form and return on/before Friday, November 27th. The course will be presented as a virtual workshop for 3 hours on ZOOM, split into the following sessions:

- Session 1:
 - 08h30 (GMT+2) – Zoom session opens and technical aspects checked with all participants, as well as online registration
 - 09h00 (GMT+2) – prompt start and introductions
 - Session closes at 10h30 (GMT+2)
- Session 2:
 - 11h30 (GMT+2) – prompt start and continuation
 - 13h00 (GMT+2) – session and training wrap-up and closure

The number of attendees will be limited, as all participants are required to attend both sessions. So get your applications in early!

We are looking forward to meeting you soon!
