To Register On This Event Please send Registration Form to magnum@businesssuccess.co.za or Alternatively Call Tel: 011 472 1035 or Fax to 086 552 9872
During this 2 day event you will gain a FULL working knowledge of the latest legislation regulating the EIA process required for environmental authorisation, waste management licences, atmospheric emission licences (AELs) and water use licence applications (WULAs) as well as appeals, amendment applications and auditing.

The course will cover all legislation regulating EIAs and draw the linkages between them, as well as unpack key terminology and concepts, and present guidelines, and case law.

Interactive discussions and use of real life examples are encouraged throughout the course to promote a practical understanding of the EIA process.

Who should attend?

This course is designed for all those who:

- conduct EIAs (EAPs)
- apply for environmental authorisations, waste management licences, WULAs and AELs (developers, industry, parastatals, government)
- comment on EIAs (NGOs, organs of state, civil society)
- decision-makers (authorities)
- enforcement (authorities)

Your Expert Facilitator

Janice Tooley | MSc (UKZN), LLB (UNISA)
Janice Tooley Attorneys

Janice Tooley is a practising attorney specialising in the field of environmental law. She has extensive experience in licence applications, compliance notices and appeals.

In addition to her LLB degree, she holds a Master of Science Degree in environmental management. Prior to taking up law, she was an environmental management consultant for 13 years and conducted numerous EIAs across a range of sectors.

Her qualifications and experience in both law and environmental management give her valuable insight into the practical application of environmental law and she finds it extremely fulfilling to share her knowledge and experience through these training courses.
