

Statistical analyst required for company involved in natural resource management, data science and software development across a wide range of sectors

Requirement:

A post-graduate degree in Statistics, or a post-graduate degree in another quantitative field combined with a major in Statistics

Other desirable characteristics:

- A good understanding of statistical principles
- Ability to carry out high level statistical analyses
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to conceptualise statistical analyses to meet business challenges
- Good logical and analytical abilities
- Strong English and ability to write documents well

Potential to fulfil a dual role:

For example, when not working on statistical analyses, to operate as

- A software developer/data scientist
- An SPSS trainer

Familiarity with the following software programmes and environments would be a distinct advantage:

- R
- Python
- SPSS

Other useful generic qualities:

- Attention to detail
- Strong work ethic
- Ability to collaborate with others in a team
- Ability to express complex ideas in simple terms

To apply:

Email CV to Michel Joffe (michel@olsps.com). Please include a brief introductory paragraph.

