

Summer School is back!

Gqeberha: 30 Nov – 04 Dec 2026

Durban: 18 – 22 Jan 2027

If you're a South African 3rd year, honours, or MSc student who is interested in a career in aquatic biodiversity, then this is for you!

Interns may also apply*

What to expect:

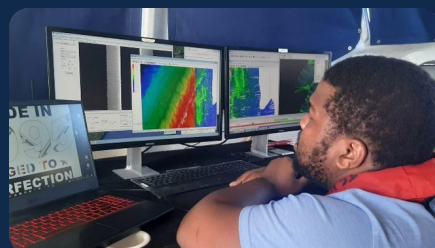

Sea-going fieldwork

Practical experience on the NRF-SAIAB research vessels

Technical training

Acoustic telemetry, Marine Remote Imagery (stereo-BRUVs) and Geophysical mapping

Applied learning

In aquatic biodiversity research

Applications close 18 September 2026

Apply now!

Please click HERE for more details and to upload a written motivation and a 1-minute video application

science, technology
& innovation
Department:
Science, Technology and Innovation
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

SAIAB
South African Institute
for Aquatic Biodiversity

SAPRI
South African Polar
Research Infrastructure

