

Trends and changes to sea ice, Greenland ice & the cryosphere in general, and what this means to us everywhere else!

With Prof Dr Antje Boetius (AWI), Dr Helene Hewitt (UKMet) and Dr Pedro Monteiro (CSIR). These are leading world experts and IPCC lead authors who will talk about why ice is so important to us and why we need to know about this all the way down/up here in the temperate region of southern Africa.

Date: Monday, 22 February 2021

Time: 16h30 SAST

Register here.