

Two free workshops on acoustic telemetry equipment

VEMCO, in collaboration with Oceans Research Institute, will host two workshops on acoustic telemetry equipment in South Africa.

The workshops will cover new products but also it will be an opportunity to discuss any issue or question one might have in relation to acoustic telemetry research. In case you had any specific topic/question you would like to discuss, please let us know, and we can include it in the workshop.

PLEASE RSVP your attendance to the workshop to e.gennari@oceans-research.com
