

One Full PhD bursary for a South African to study fisheries/aquaculture at Makerere University, Uganda

Benefits:

- First class education
- Tuition fees, paid!
- Research costs, paid!
- Travel and visa costs, paid!
- Living costs and insurance, paid!
- Family responsibility allowance for female scholarship holders, paid!

Successful candidates will register and receive their degrees from leading African University: Makerere University, Uganda

If you have an MSc degree in the life sciences from Rhodes University, then you can apply!

Info/applications: <http://cotraintrafrica.org/year-one-application>
 Email application form to: applications@cotraintrafrica.org AND c.jones@ru.ac.za subject line: "COTRA scholarship" BEFORE 31 May 2019

Second advert for PhD only – application deadline: 31 May 2019

Intra-Africa Academic Mobility Scheme

Study or teach in another African country

eacea.ec.europa.eu/intra-africa

COTRA – Collaborative training in fisheries and aquaculture in East, Central and Southern Africa is an intra-Africa mobility academic partnership project funded by EU

