

South African Master of Ocean Sciences

2027 APPLICATIONS ARE NOW OPEN!

Are you a prospective student or professional seeking to specialise in Ocean Sciences?

Commencement date: February 2027

Apply now to join the AOS-SAMOS Masters course, a joint programme led by nine South African universities, the NRF and five European partners, supported by ERASMUS+ CBHE project.

The South African Master in Ocean Sciences (SAMOS) programme equips postgraduate students with the knowledge, skills, and values needed to contribute meaningfully to research and practice across the diverse fields of Ocean Sciences. It offers a single, collaborative programme that draws together nine universities and national research institutes, along with associated infrastructure and international partners, to deliver a modern, high-quality degree.

APPLICATIONS CLOSING DATE: 31 AUGUST 2026

To apply, visit the SAMOS website:
