

14TH INTERNATIONAL POLYCHAETE CONFERENCE

Stellenbosch, Cape Town | South Africa

3-7 July 2023

DEADLINE EXTENDED

SeaMap* SUPPORT FOR ATTENDING THE
14TH INTERNATIONAL POLYCHAETE
CONFERENCE & PRE-CONFERENCE
IDENTIFICATION WORKSHOP
(28 June-7 July 2023)

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Must be South African registered student.
- Must be actively involved in postgraduate degree research which includes identification of polychaetes.
- Must submit an abstract for a poster or presentation at IPC by 31 March 2023 (<http://savetcon.co.za/ipccfa/>)
- Preference will be given to students who are affiliated with SeaMap project partners.

WHAT IS INCLUDED

- Registration to pre-conference polychaete identification workshop.
- Registration to 14th International Polychaete Conference, hosted by Stellenbosch University and Iziko Museums of South Africa.
- Travel costs for participants outside of Cape Town.
- Accommodation costs may be subsidized.

Funding is provided by SeaMap (<https://bit.ly/3XCdALm>)

SeaMap is a multi-institutional collaborative project aimed at delivering South Africa's first data-driven marine ecosystem map using species occurrence data. The project is administered by the South African Environmental Observation Network (SAEON) and funded by the National Research Foundation (NRF) and the Foundational Biodiversity Information Programme (FBIP) and the South African National Biodiversity Institute (SANBI)*

SANBI
Biodiversity for Life
South African National Biodiversity Institute

