

Marine Research Permit Applications

Closing date: 9 December 2024

The Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment (DFFE) is accepting applications for marine research permits until 9 December 2024. Researchers from universities, research institutions, and affiliated organizations can apply. Applications must be submitted through the structured process and include the necessary supporting documents. Applications and enquiries to Researchpermits@dffe.gov.za. All relevant information can be downloaded from these links:

- Information for applicants for marine research permits
- Marine research permits for 2025 application form
- Marine research permits application - summary catch report
- Research permit feedback report